RV Whack-A-Mole Continues...

Silver Lake Together has received multiple questions, concerns, and calls for help with regard to a particular RV, whose owner has been using our residential streets as his personal storage facility for over a year. Residents are not pleased having this large and unsightly vehicle parked in front of their homes, for days at a time.

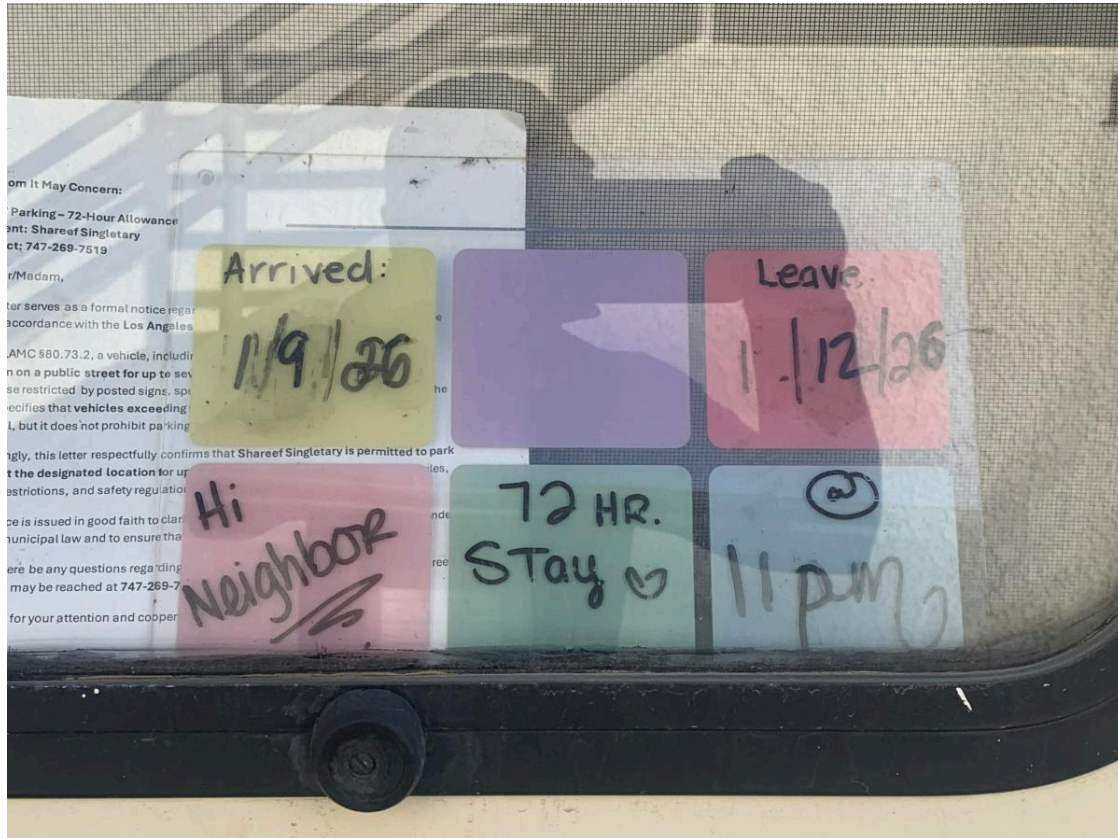

For the last couple of months, the RV owner, after discovery of a few parking enforcement loopholes, has placed a message board in one of the windows, informing home owners what day the vehicle was parked in front of their home, and that the RV will be moved in 72 hours (photo below). Sadly, the owner has not been consistent with that assurance. Although the RV's tags expired over 6 months ago and the vehicle has been tagged by the city, apparently nothing more can be done.

Unfortunately a ruling, recently made by a L.A. judge, halted the removal of RV's valued at $500.00 or more from public or private streets, regardless of any disruptions brought upon the community.

This ridiculous game of "whack a mole" continues."

...as does the urban blight at 2800 Glendale!

Silver Lake Together has also received questions regarding the infamous abandoned project at 2800 Glendale.

Since our last update in June 2025, not much has changed. Some exterior panels have been installed, and the protective tarps have been graffitied.

This project has been in a state of disrepair for years. A permit was issued in 2017, eight years ago, and during the pandemic things went south.

“We’ve worked through some engineering and financing issues and expect to be wrapping up this year,” said Hardy Wronske in 2024, head of Everelle Build Co., which owns the property. Well, it’s now 2026 and questions to Mr. Wronske on the current status went unanswered.

In August 2025, the LADBS website indicates the project was referred to the Inspection Bureau but the status was closed.

SLT encourages concerned residents to ask CD4 about the status of 2800 Glendale and say enough is enough of this blight. Please contact Hannah Jaeger, Field Deputy for Silver Lake: hannah.jaeger@lacity.org

On Monday, January 19th, 2026, at approximately 11:30 AM, the Los Angeles Police Department's Northeast Division, Patrol Officers responded to a radio call regarding a female trespassing at an apartment complex near the 2600 Block of Glendale Blvd.

Upon the Officers arrival, Officers were notified by paramedics at scene that sadly the female was pronounced deceased. A subsequent investigation conducted by Central Homicide Detectives and the Coroner's Office concluded that the victim had been murdered. While her identity has been confirmed, Detectives have chosen not to release her name at this time. It is believed that both the victim and any potential suspects are experiencing homelessness.

Detectives continue to investigate the matter and are engaging with community members for further information. Further updates will be provided as more details emerge by Homicide Division.
